He thought on this and then ordered me to find out who or what is in control in Valhingen Graveyard. Preliminary investigation shows that the graveyard is controlled by a being of great power, perhaps a vampire or a demon. I shall expend a few scouts and low level priests to find out more information."

Journal Entry 12:

Message scratched into the wall over the pool.

Beware the power of the pool.

Death to those unworthy of the gifts of the pool.

Power to those who will use the gifts of the pool wisely.

Bathe in the pool if you dare.

Journal Entry 13:

A flowery note written on stationary emblazoned with the symbol of the City Council of New Philan.

"With the artifact and agreement in this pouch we have made our final concessions to your demands. We have given you everything you have asked for. This should settle our differences and cement our alliance.

"Now that we have delivered our part of the bargain we will expect you to uphold your end. Use this protected pouch and our representatives to deliver your part of the bargain to the city council. Remember to include all of the magical items we agreed upon.

"With the buried riches in the reclaimed Philan, and the might of Zhentil Keep we will be able to control all of the northern shores of the Moonsea."

Signed

Porphyrys Cadorna
City Council
New Philan

Journal Entry 14:

Several pieces of paper with highly organized writing.

Fact: Porphyrys Cadorna is the last known surviving member of the Cadorna Clan.

Strong Rumor: rising star in city politics and on the City Council.

Rumor: very charming, has many admirers, but no known mate.

Rumor: vindictive, likes to get his own way and remembers when he is (in his mind) double crossed.

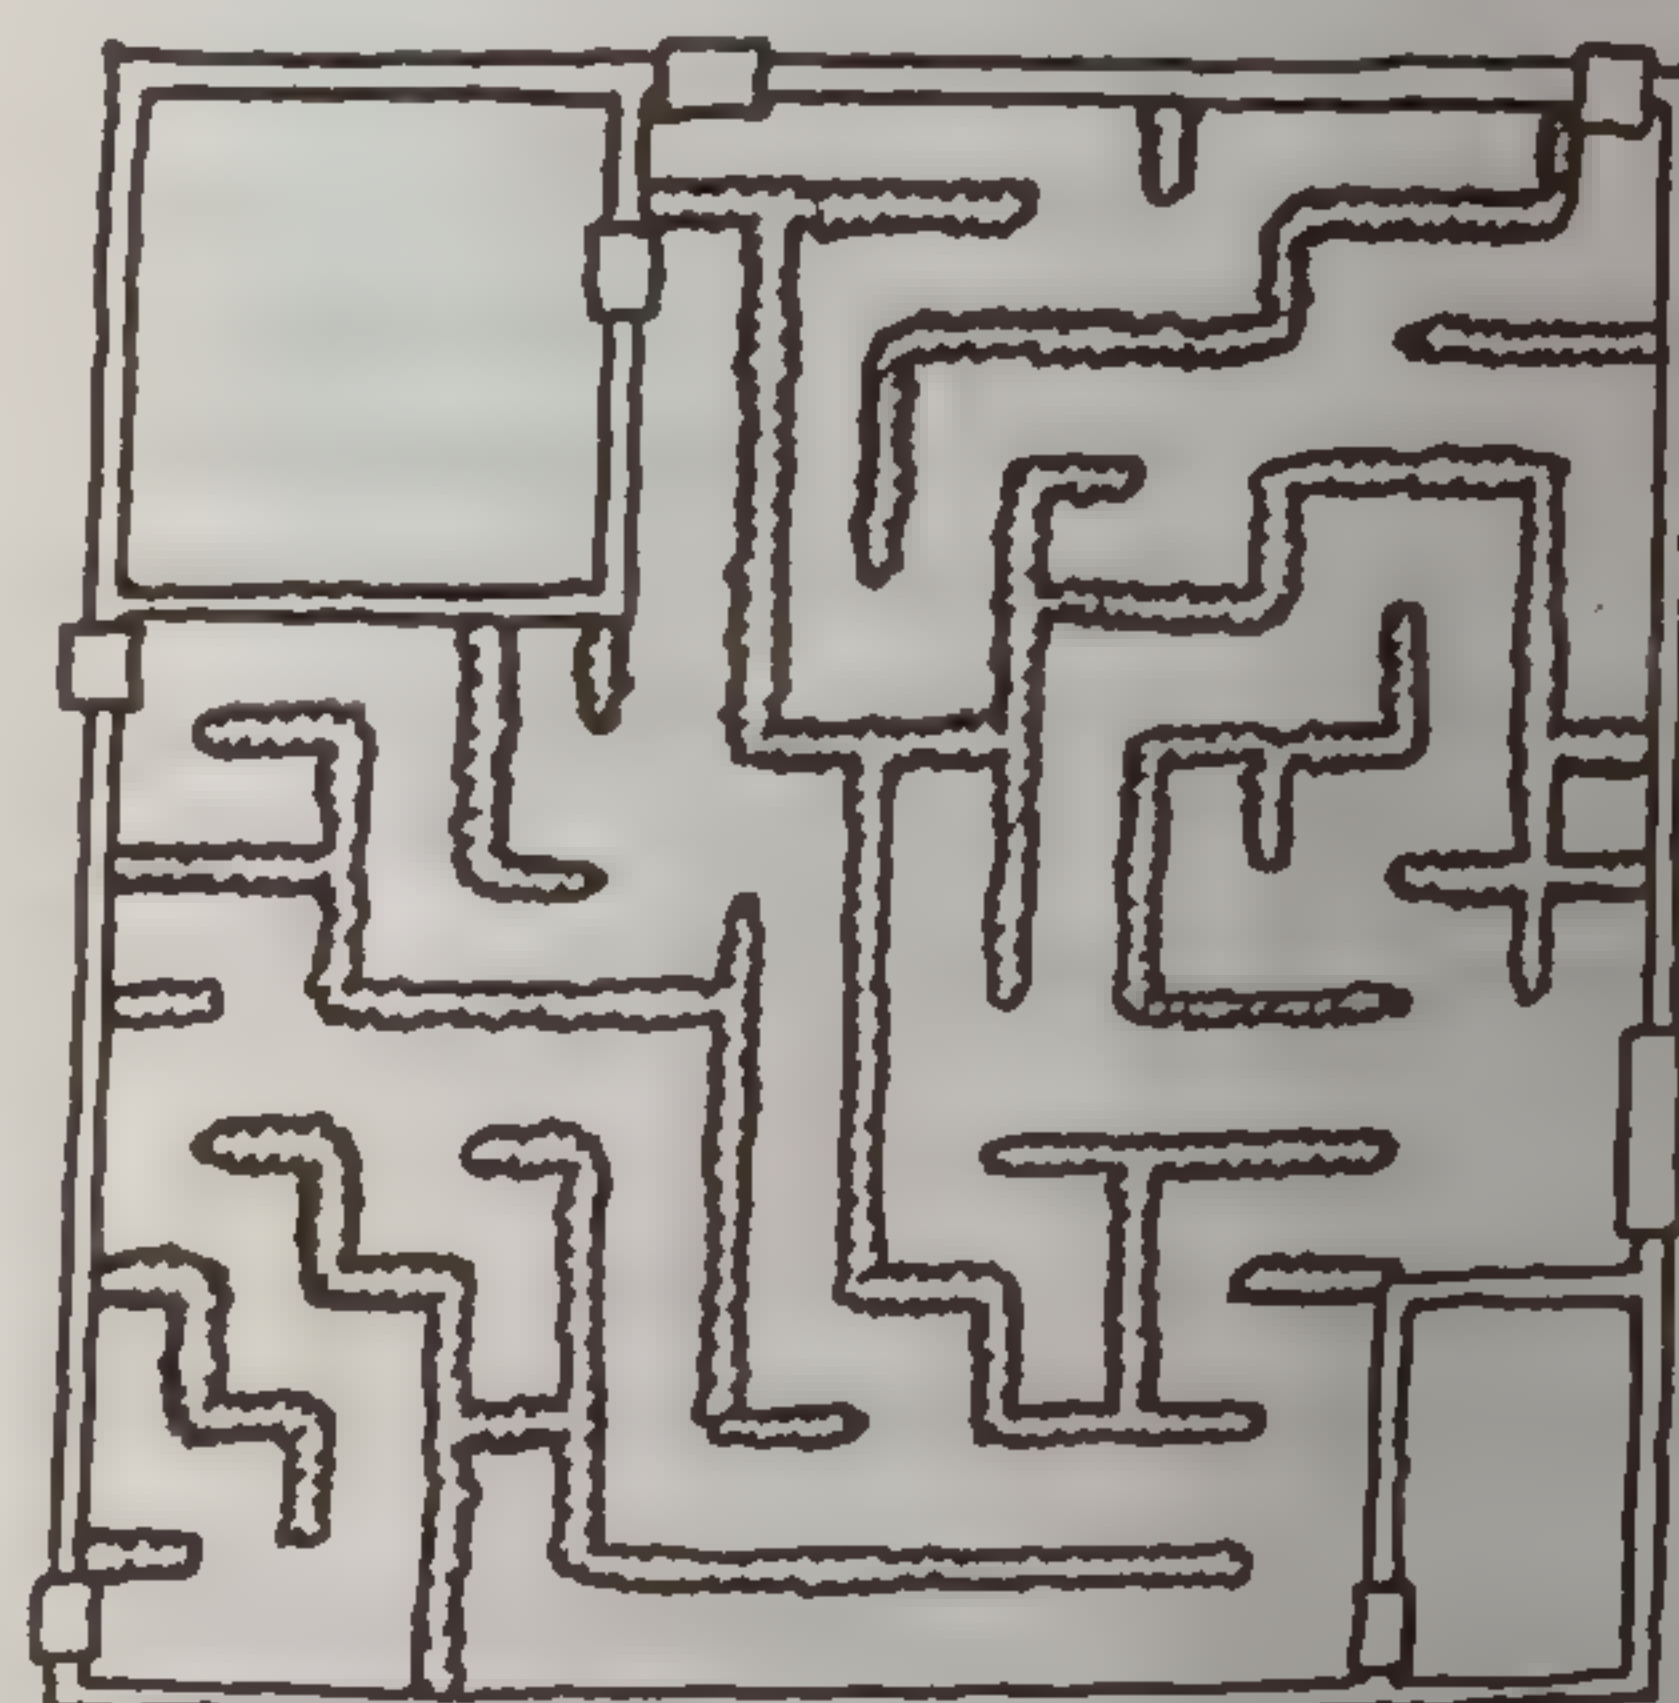

Fact: has contacted thieves to have them gain him information on the Pool of Radiance.

Fact: has hired a number of mercenaries through the thieves (we received our normal cut).

Vague Rumor: is using mercenaries to find Pool of Radiance.

Journal Entry 15:

A clean map drawn with exact lines.

Journal Entry 16:

Told in a proud, haughty voice.

"I am a princess of a tribe of nomads to the northwest. My father is an old fool. He wanted me to marry King Al Rasid, to cement an alliance. I had more important things to do, than be tied down to an aging monarch. When I marry, it shall be to someone who has the same taste of adventure and the same skill with a sword.

"Well, Father was insistent and his subjects supported him, so I left to seek my fortune. Kobolds had been raiding our tents upon occasion, so I headed this way. If I could end the threat, then I'd have more leverage with my tribe. However, two nights ago, I was ambushed by these worms -- knocked out and bound up. I finally got myself untied a little while ago and was working my way out of these caves, when you showed up."

Journal Entry 17:

A quick note on an often used piece of paper.

"I must find some handy allies in case this monster from Philan sends his troops to attack my island. I need a small, intelligent party who can move through the civilized areas without notice, but who have the skill to traverse the uncivilized areas and the wilderness. I must watch the next groups to come to the lake and see if any would make proper allies."

Journal Entry 18:

A ratty piece of parchment with large writing on one side.

"Hold the Sokal Keep on Thorn Island at all costs. If attacked, sacrifice your troops as necessary to hold out until relieved.

"In your deployment set two squads of hobgoblins to patrol Thorn Island at all times. At least 2 squads of archers are to be deployed on the walls at all times. Let the pack of wardogs loose to cover the island several times a day at random intervals. Set pairs of kobolds as observers in hidden locations around the island.

If Thorn Island is invaded immediately dispatch a message back to the castle. We will send over however many reinforcements are necessary to hold the island."

Journal Entry 19:

A black bound tome written in a strange halting hand.

"...and settled foremost in the hall of Minor Courtiers were the lesser powers: Maram of the Great Spear; Haask, Voice of Hangut; Tyranthraxus the Flamed One; Borem of the Lake of Boiling Mud; and Camnod the Unseen. These too fell down and became servants of the great lord Bane."

Journal Entry 20:

Told in a pained voice.

"We just got the cut through to the beastie's lair when I injured my leg. King decided there wasn't much use fer me anymore. Made me a proposition though. Said if I went into the lair and brought out the treasure, he'd feed me till I stopped breathin'. Best deal I had, so they tossed me down here. Not bein' a fool, I lit out for the deepest hidey-hole.

Thankfully the beastie was asleep. I can still move real quiet when I must.

"Anyway, if there hasn't been much of an alarm, then drunken Ferd must be on watch at the rock. He's the King's son, so he ain't here with me -- worthless sot. If he's there, he's got less brains than a fermented rat, just act officious and he'll take ya ta the king. Wouldn't mind hearin' of that tyrant's demise. Ya seem just the types ta do it too."

Journal Entry 38:

Several pieces of paper with highly organized writing.

Fact: Werner von Urslingen is a retired mercenary captain turned business man.

Strong Rumor: mostly interested in the military aspects of the reconquest of Phlan.

Rumor: fought in a mercenary unit hired by The Boss early in his career.

Rumor: hates Zhentarim because he fought in a unit against them several times.

Rumor: has strong contacts with other mercenaries and some ruffians in town; none of our informants confirm such contact.

Vague Rumor: Von Urslingen's unit was wiped out by enemy magic users; he was the only survivor; he retired and now secretly hates magic users.

Journal Entry 39:

A preserved parchment covered with giant script.

"I am writing to you to describe my further inquiries into the legend of the Pool of Radiance. It seems the pool has moved several times. Long ago, at least one wise wizard actually moved the pool into his abode for a period of time to study it. However, the pool seems to return to its original location after every move. I am now watching the dry hole that is the pool's natural location. When it returns I will be ready. I truly believe that the Pool of Radiance is the key to the secret wisdom that I seek."

Yours in wisdom
Sorrassar

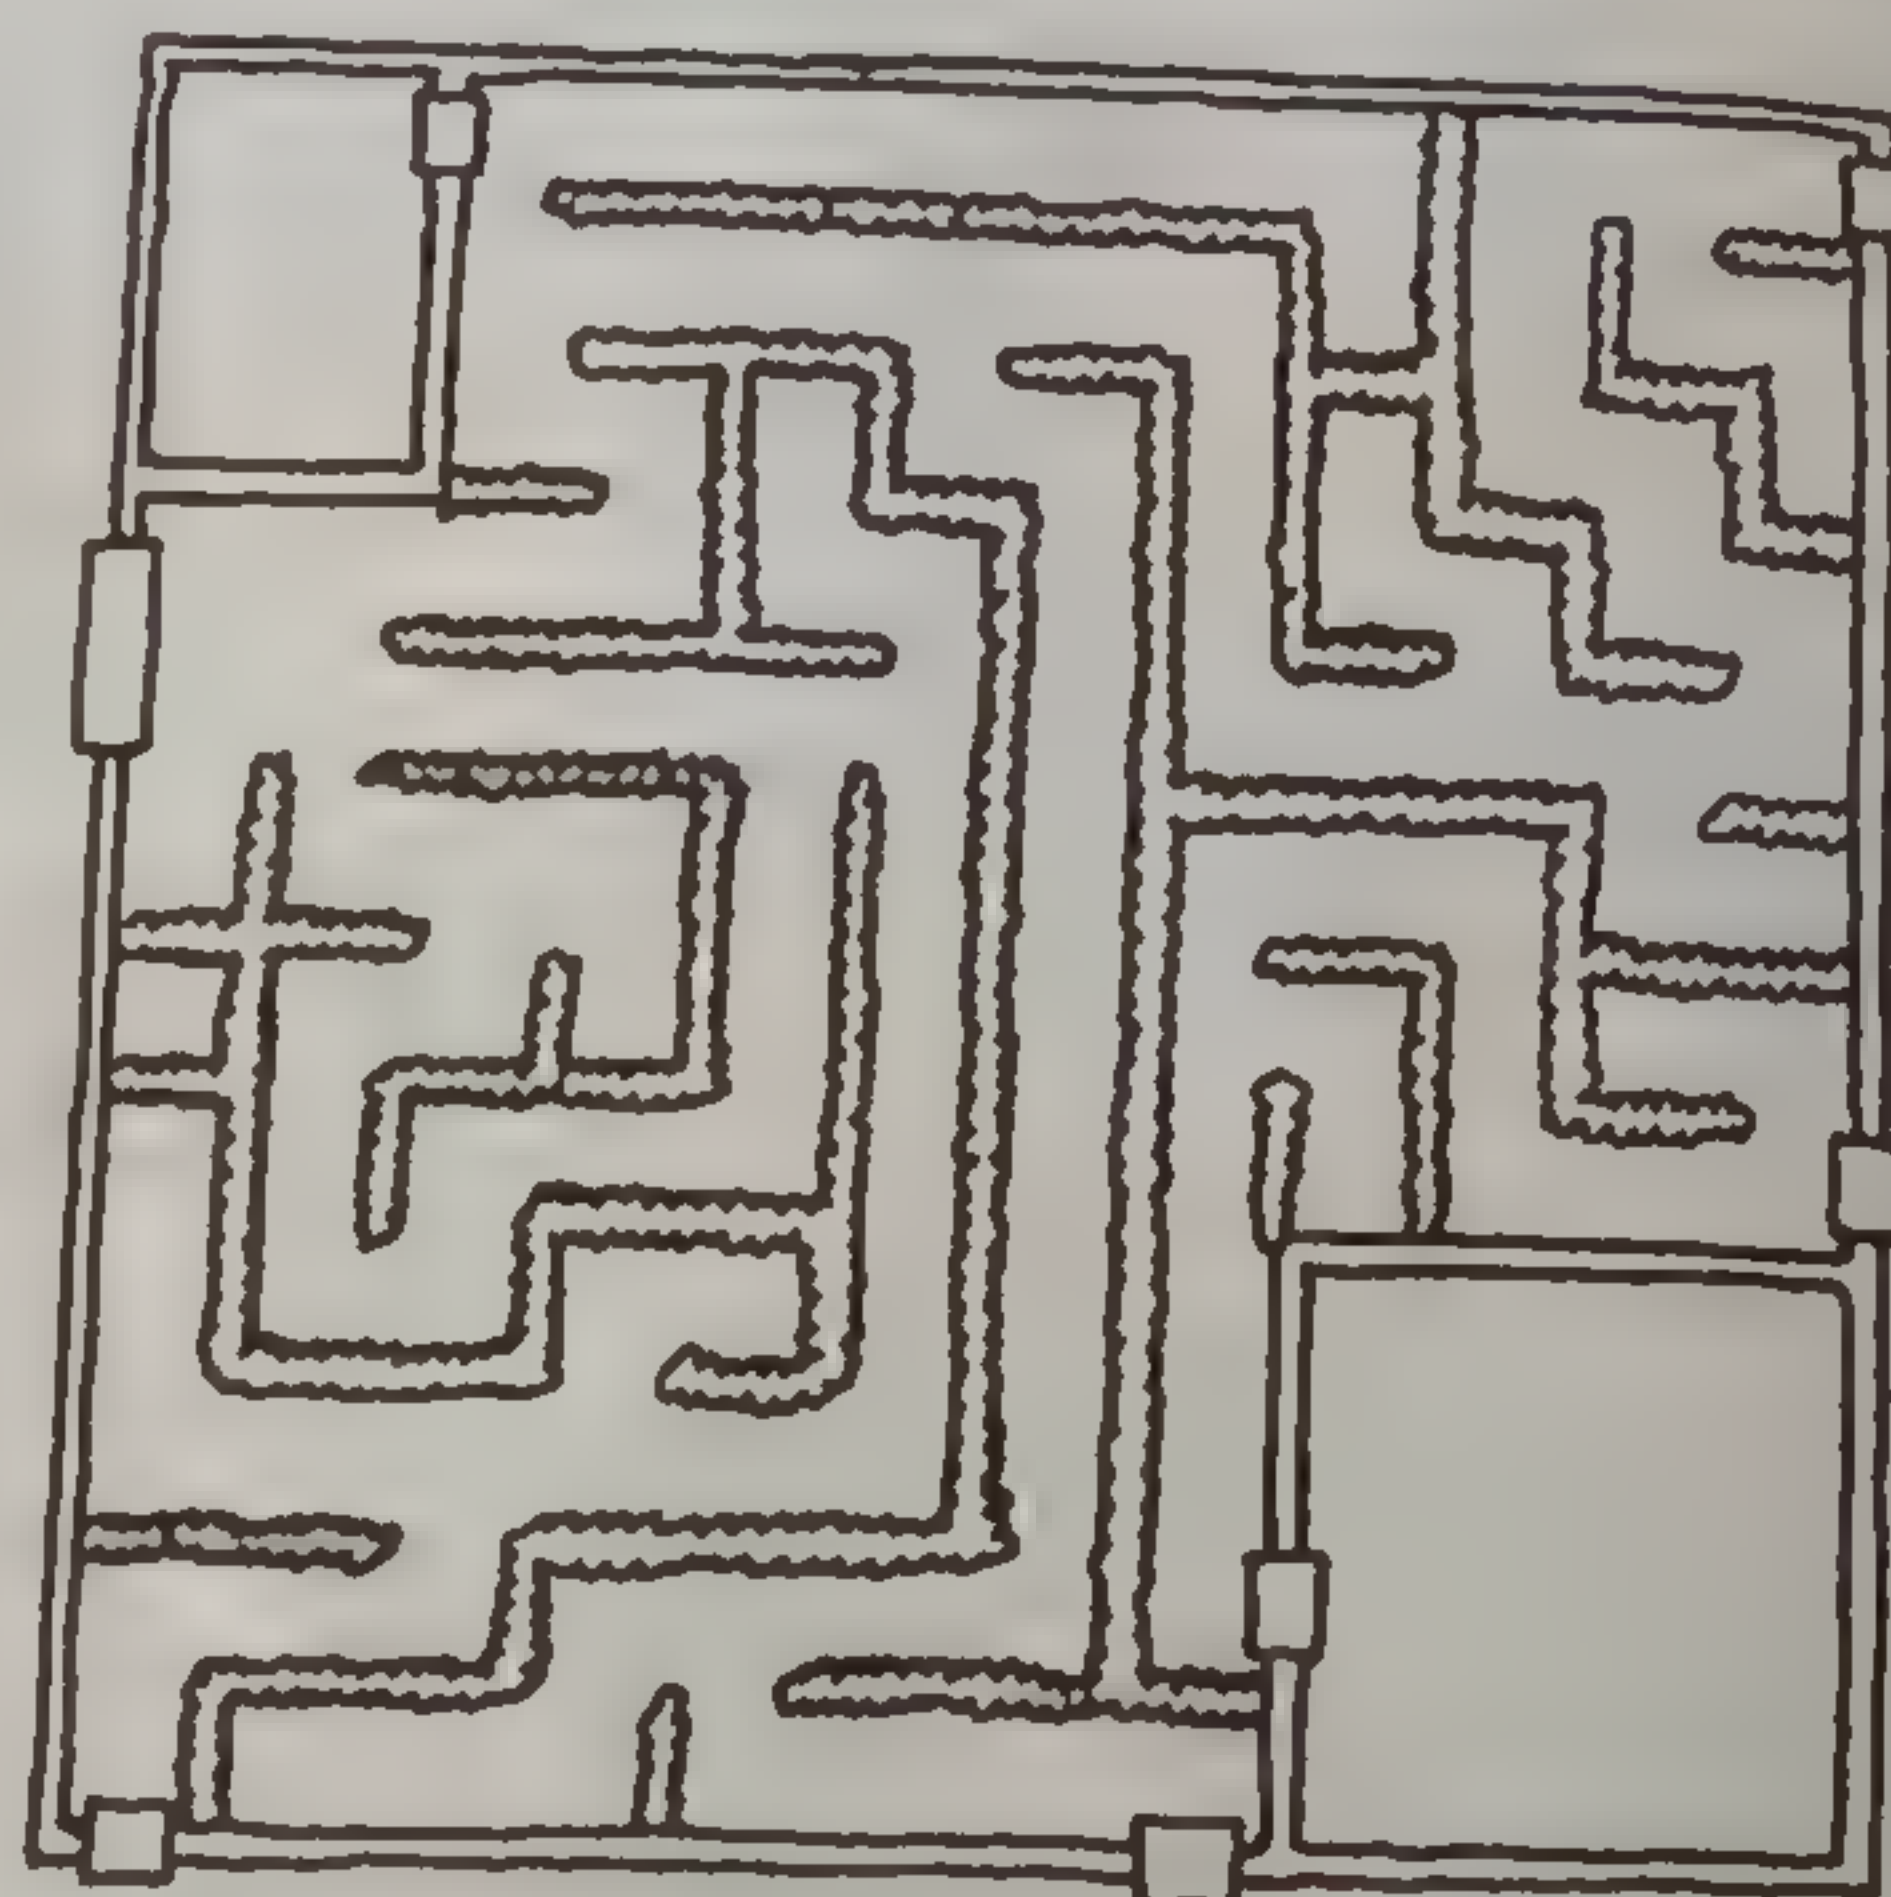

Journal Entry 40:

A quick note on an often used piece of paper.

"Both kobolds and hobgoblins exist in large numbers to the east. Experiments show neither makes good breeding material."

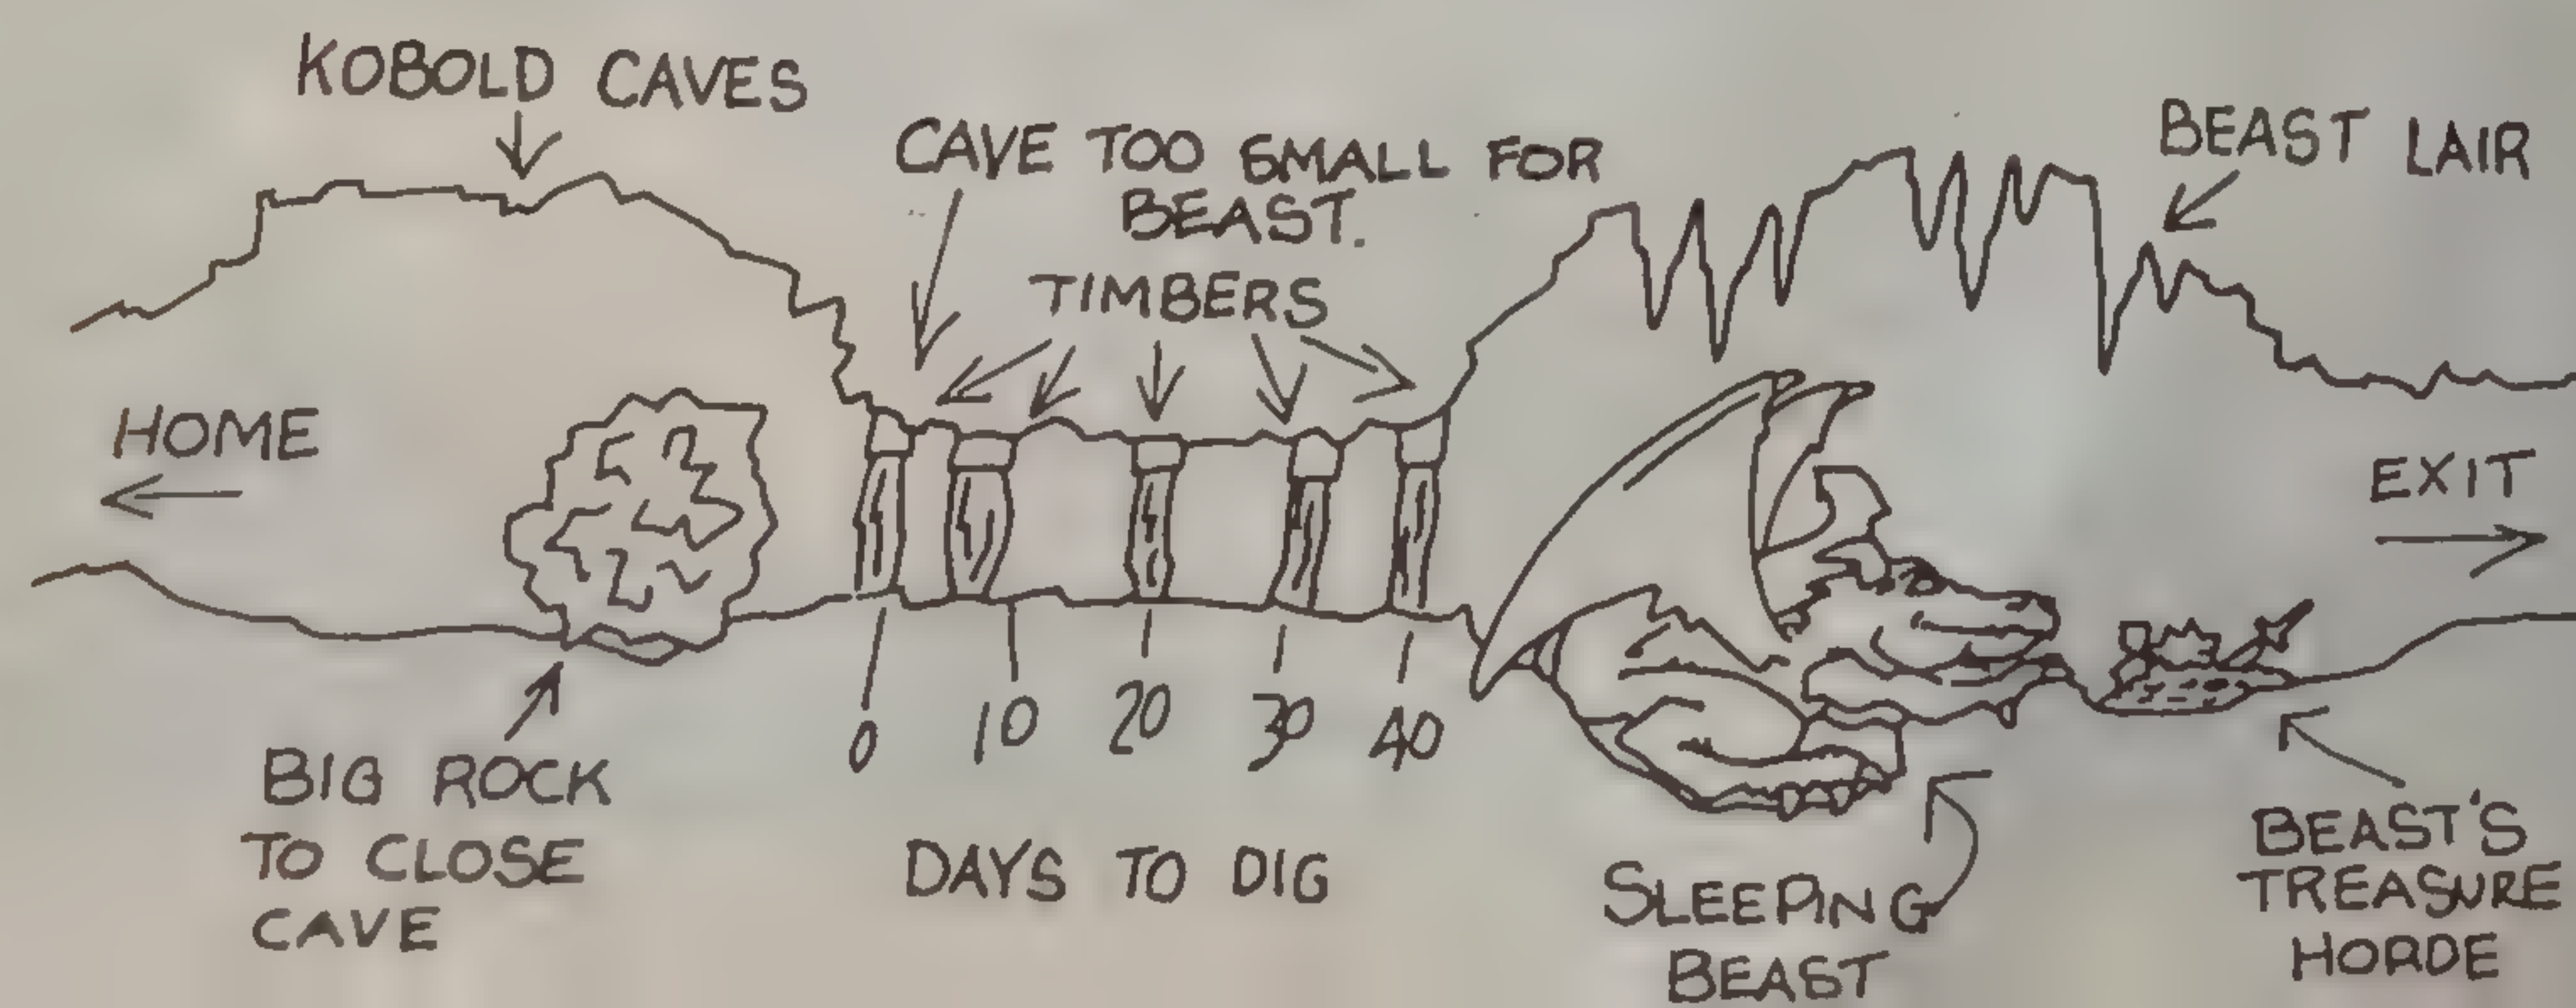

Journal Entry 41: NW Castle

A clean map drawn with exact lines.

Journal Entry 42:

A sketch drawing.

Journal Entry 43:

A loosely wrapped scroll.
"Aramalg-the-Good, paladin and brother of Taimalg-the-Invincible, and Sarasim of Teshwave, the high priestess of Sune, attacked the denizens of the Valhingen Graveyard with a holy vengeance. They came in search of Taimalg and his mercenary band, who assaulted the graveyard and did not return."

"Sarasim used her holy power to dissipate and turn the undead that confronted them. Aramalg wielded his vorpal sword and slew the few that fought her power."

"Together, Aramalg and Sarasim penetrated the graveyard to an evil marble crypt. They found and splintered an empty coffin, blessing the remains and sprinkling it with holy water. Then they confronted the owner of the coffin, a creature of great evil and the leader of the undead in Valhingen, an ancient vampire. The three began a furious melee."

"The vampire was swayed by Aramalg and Sarasim's power, but would not be turned. The vampire shouted, 'I have defeated Taimalg and his warriors, I will defeat the brother of Taimalg as well!'"

"The vampire summoned an army of rats and tried to charm Sarasim to his side, but to no avail. Sarasim resisted his charm and Aramalg charged through the massed vermin. The vampire fell before the mighty blows of Aramalg's holy sword and Sarasim's enchanted mace."

"Defeated, the ancient vampire dissolved into gas and fled to his coffin. Finding the coffin destroyed he returned to solid form and screamed. Seizing the moment Aramalg grabbed the vampire and held him with all of his strength. Sarasim ran up and drove an oaken stake through the vampire's heart."

"Aramalg and Sarasim performed the proper rituals to banish the vampire forever. Then, wounded, Aramalg and Sarasim left Valhingen Graveyard. It was beyond their power to completely cleanse the evil place, but they had extracted proper vengeance for the death of Taimalg and his troops."

Journal Entry 44:

A cleanly written note on standard paper found on the body of a dead trader.

Aleram,

"Hello my good friend. I hope you and your brood are well. I am tired; tired of trekking through unspeakable swamps and over unclimbable mountains to take my meager wares to ungrateful customers."

"Only one event has saved this year's sales. I found a castle full of happy folk who were very good customers. They were starved for goods and news from the outside world. And well they should be, their castle was in the middle of a small forest, and the forest was in the middle of a swamp!"

"These people seemed to know nothing of recent events. They still spoke of Phlan as if it were in its full flower. And they paid in old Phlanian Gold Sovereigns, double the weight of the newer gold coins!"

"Though they were out of date, they were very friendly and prosperous. I saw more than one gem glitter in the sun, and several swords showed a flash that made me think they were magic. If you are willing to dodge the vermin of the swamp I would add this castle to your trading route. Speed to your horse, strength to your arm, and skill to your trading."

ADVENTURE MENU

The Adventure Menu allows access to all of the main functions in the Pool of Radiance. This menu shows either the current 3-D picture of the area in front of the party and the status of the party (if in a town adventure), or the area around the party (if in the wilderness). If any party members are injured, their hit point numbers (showing how many they have now) are highlighted for easy recognition. There are several commands available to you from this menu.

Adventure Menu:

MOVE VIEW CAST AREA ENCAP SEARCH LOOK

MOVE:

This is the command to move the party. How the party moves is shown on the Quick Reference Card provided with the game for your computer.

In 3-D travel, the Party can move forward, move backwards, turn right, or turn left. Normally, each movement forward or back puts the party into another square and takes one minute of game time. Turning keeps the party in the same square and takes no game time. If the party has Search on, moving one square takes 10 minutes.

In the Wilderness, the party can move in any of eight directions. Moving one square takes a half a day of game time. Search mode has no effect in the wilderness.

VIEW:

This displays the Character Screen, as described in Viewing a Character.

CAST:

This command sends you to the Cast Menu so your active character can throw a magic spell. See the section on Magic for a description of how to cast spells and their effect.

AREA:

This shows an overhead view of the area around the party. If the party is lost or in unfamiliar territory this command may not be available.

ENCAMP:

This command sends you to the Encamp Menu. This is a very important part of the game, and is described in detail in its own section.

SEARCH:

A party can move in Search Mode, which takes 10 minutes of game time per move. This allows the party to carefully search the area they are passing, but also gives wandering monsters a greater chance to find them. You only need to hit the Search command once to start the party moving at Search speed, then hit the command again later to reset them to normal movement. You do not need to hit Search for every move.

In Search you are assumed to be checking for secret doors, mapping, moving as silently as possible, hiding in any available shadows, and generally being as careful as possible.

If you never go to Search mode, you will run into fewer wandering monsters (because you are moving faster) but have much less chance of finding concealed treasures or traps before they are sprung.

LOOK:

This command is used to look at a square more closely, as if your party moved into the square again. If the party is moving at normal rate, then a Look command treats that particular square as if the party moved into it in Search mode.

ENCAMP

This command is used in several menus to take time off and try to rebuild characters and the party. It is used to handle day-to-day functions such as saving the game, resting to heal, or memorize spells (described under Magic Menu), and changing game items such as game speed or party order.

Encamp Menu:

ENCAMP: SAVE VIEW MAGIC REST ALTER EXIT

SAVE:

This command saves the characters and game as they are. Check the Quick Reference Card for any system specific details of how to save your game.

VIEW:

This displays the View Menu, as described under Viewing a Character. In camp, this does not display the Sell Item or ID commands.

MAGIC:

Magic is a very important part of Pool of Radiance and is described later under its own heading. Magical Spells can only be memorized while the party is in camp.

REST:

One of the most important aspects of the Encamp Menu is the chance to rest. Characters catch their normal sleep without having to go to camp. However, to memorize spells or heal naturally, specific rest time is necessary.

For every 24 uninterrupted hours of resting in camp, every wounded character regains one hit point above and beyond any recovery gained from healing magics.

The initial resting time is established by anyone who is memorizing spells. The screen will show the days, hours, and minutes necessary for the spell-using members of the party to memorize (or pray for) the spells they want to memorize. Memorizing any spells at all takes a minimum of four hours. Third level spells take a minimum of six hours. See the Magic Menu for further description of memorizing spells.

Rest can be interrupted by any random encounter. Only take long rests in safe places, such as Inns, hideouts, or secure buildings.

Rest Menu:

REST INCREASE DECREASE EXIT

REST

Once you have determined the full time you want the party to rest, this command starts them Resting.

INCREASE

This command adds to the time that the party will stay in camp, usually for resting to regain lost hit points. Every 24 uninterrupted hours in camp restores 1 HP to every injured member of the group.

DECREASE

This command decreases the time to be spent in camp. This may mean that characters do not memorize all the spells they want or that characters may not recover all their hit points, but sometimes time constraints are part of the adventure, and the party cannot spend all the time it wants resting.

ALTER:

This command is used to change the basic makeup of both the party and the characters who are part of it. You are given the following menu:

Alter Menu:

ALTER: ORDER DROP SPEED ICON PKCS EXIT

Rules Errata: Wilderness encounters replace your party's icon, they do not appear adjacent to it. Charmed characters will not join your party but they will fight on your side for one battle. Evil clerics Turn undead, they do not charm them onto your side.

Differences in the Apple II Version: The Apple II version of Pool of Radiance is slightly different than the rules. These differences include:

Pressing the <ESC> key is the same as choosing the Exit command in a menu. While moving in combat, the <ESC> key will "take back" your current move, but it will not erase any damage you have taken during the move.

The Monster Portrait On/Off isn't used on the Apple II Version.

The "<" and ">" keys can be used for moving menu cursor up and down.

There is no Exit To DOS on the Party Creation Menu. Turn your computer off and then on to run other programs. A character's portrait picture is only shown in the civilized area. Some items can only be Readied in combat or in camp. If you try to ready these items in other places, the computer responds "NOT HERE."

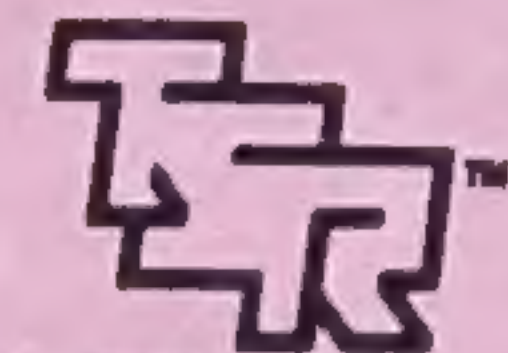

The following commands can be given at the Combat menu or while a party character is moving under computer control. Press the key to execute the command.

- C :Sets all characters to computer control.
- <Space> : Resets all characters to manual control.
- M :Toggles magic on or off for characters set to Quick.

Characters set to Quick will always use Readied Magic Items. Characters with Readied arrows will use bows if no enemy is adjacent.

Apple II Quick Start Card An Official Advanced Dungeons & Dragons® Computer Product POOL OF RADIANCE

Before Beginning Play: You should back up both sides of all four game disks with the copy option on side 1 or a commercial copy program. Put the originals away and play off of the copies.

To Load The Game: Connect your computer, monitor, and disk drive. If you use a joystick, plug it into the joystick port. Set the Shift Lock key off and do not press shift when typing in text. Turn on the monitor, place side 1 into disk drive 1, and then turn on the computer.

First you will be prompted to copy a disk. Type "Y" to make a backup disk or type "N" if you have already made backups of your masters. Next type "Y" or "N" if you wish to have the sound on. After pressing "Y" or "N" for sound, you will have the option to use a joystick by typing "Y" or typing "N" to use the keyboard. Next, you will have the option to run your machine in Fast mode, type "Y" if your machine has an accelerator card or Ilgs board, otherwise type "N." Finally, the computer prompts you to change disks, place the correct disk in the drive and press Return. Press any key to pass the title screen. After the credits, press Return to play the game, or if you are using a joystick you will now calibrate your joystick for play. Once your joystick is calibrated, press Return to play the game. Two symbols and a path are displayed. Find the first symbol on the outside of the translation wheel, and the second symbol on the inside ring of the wheel. Match the two symbols and read the word under the path from inside to outside. For example if the computer displays:

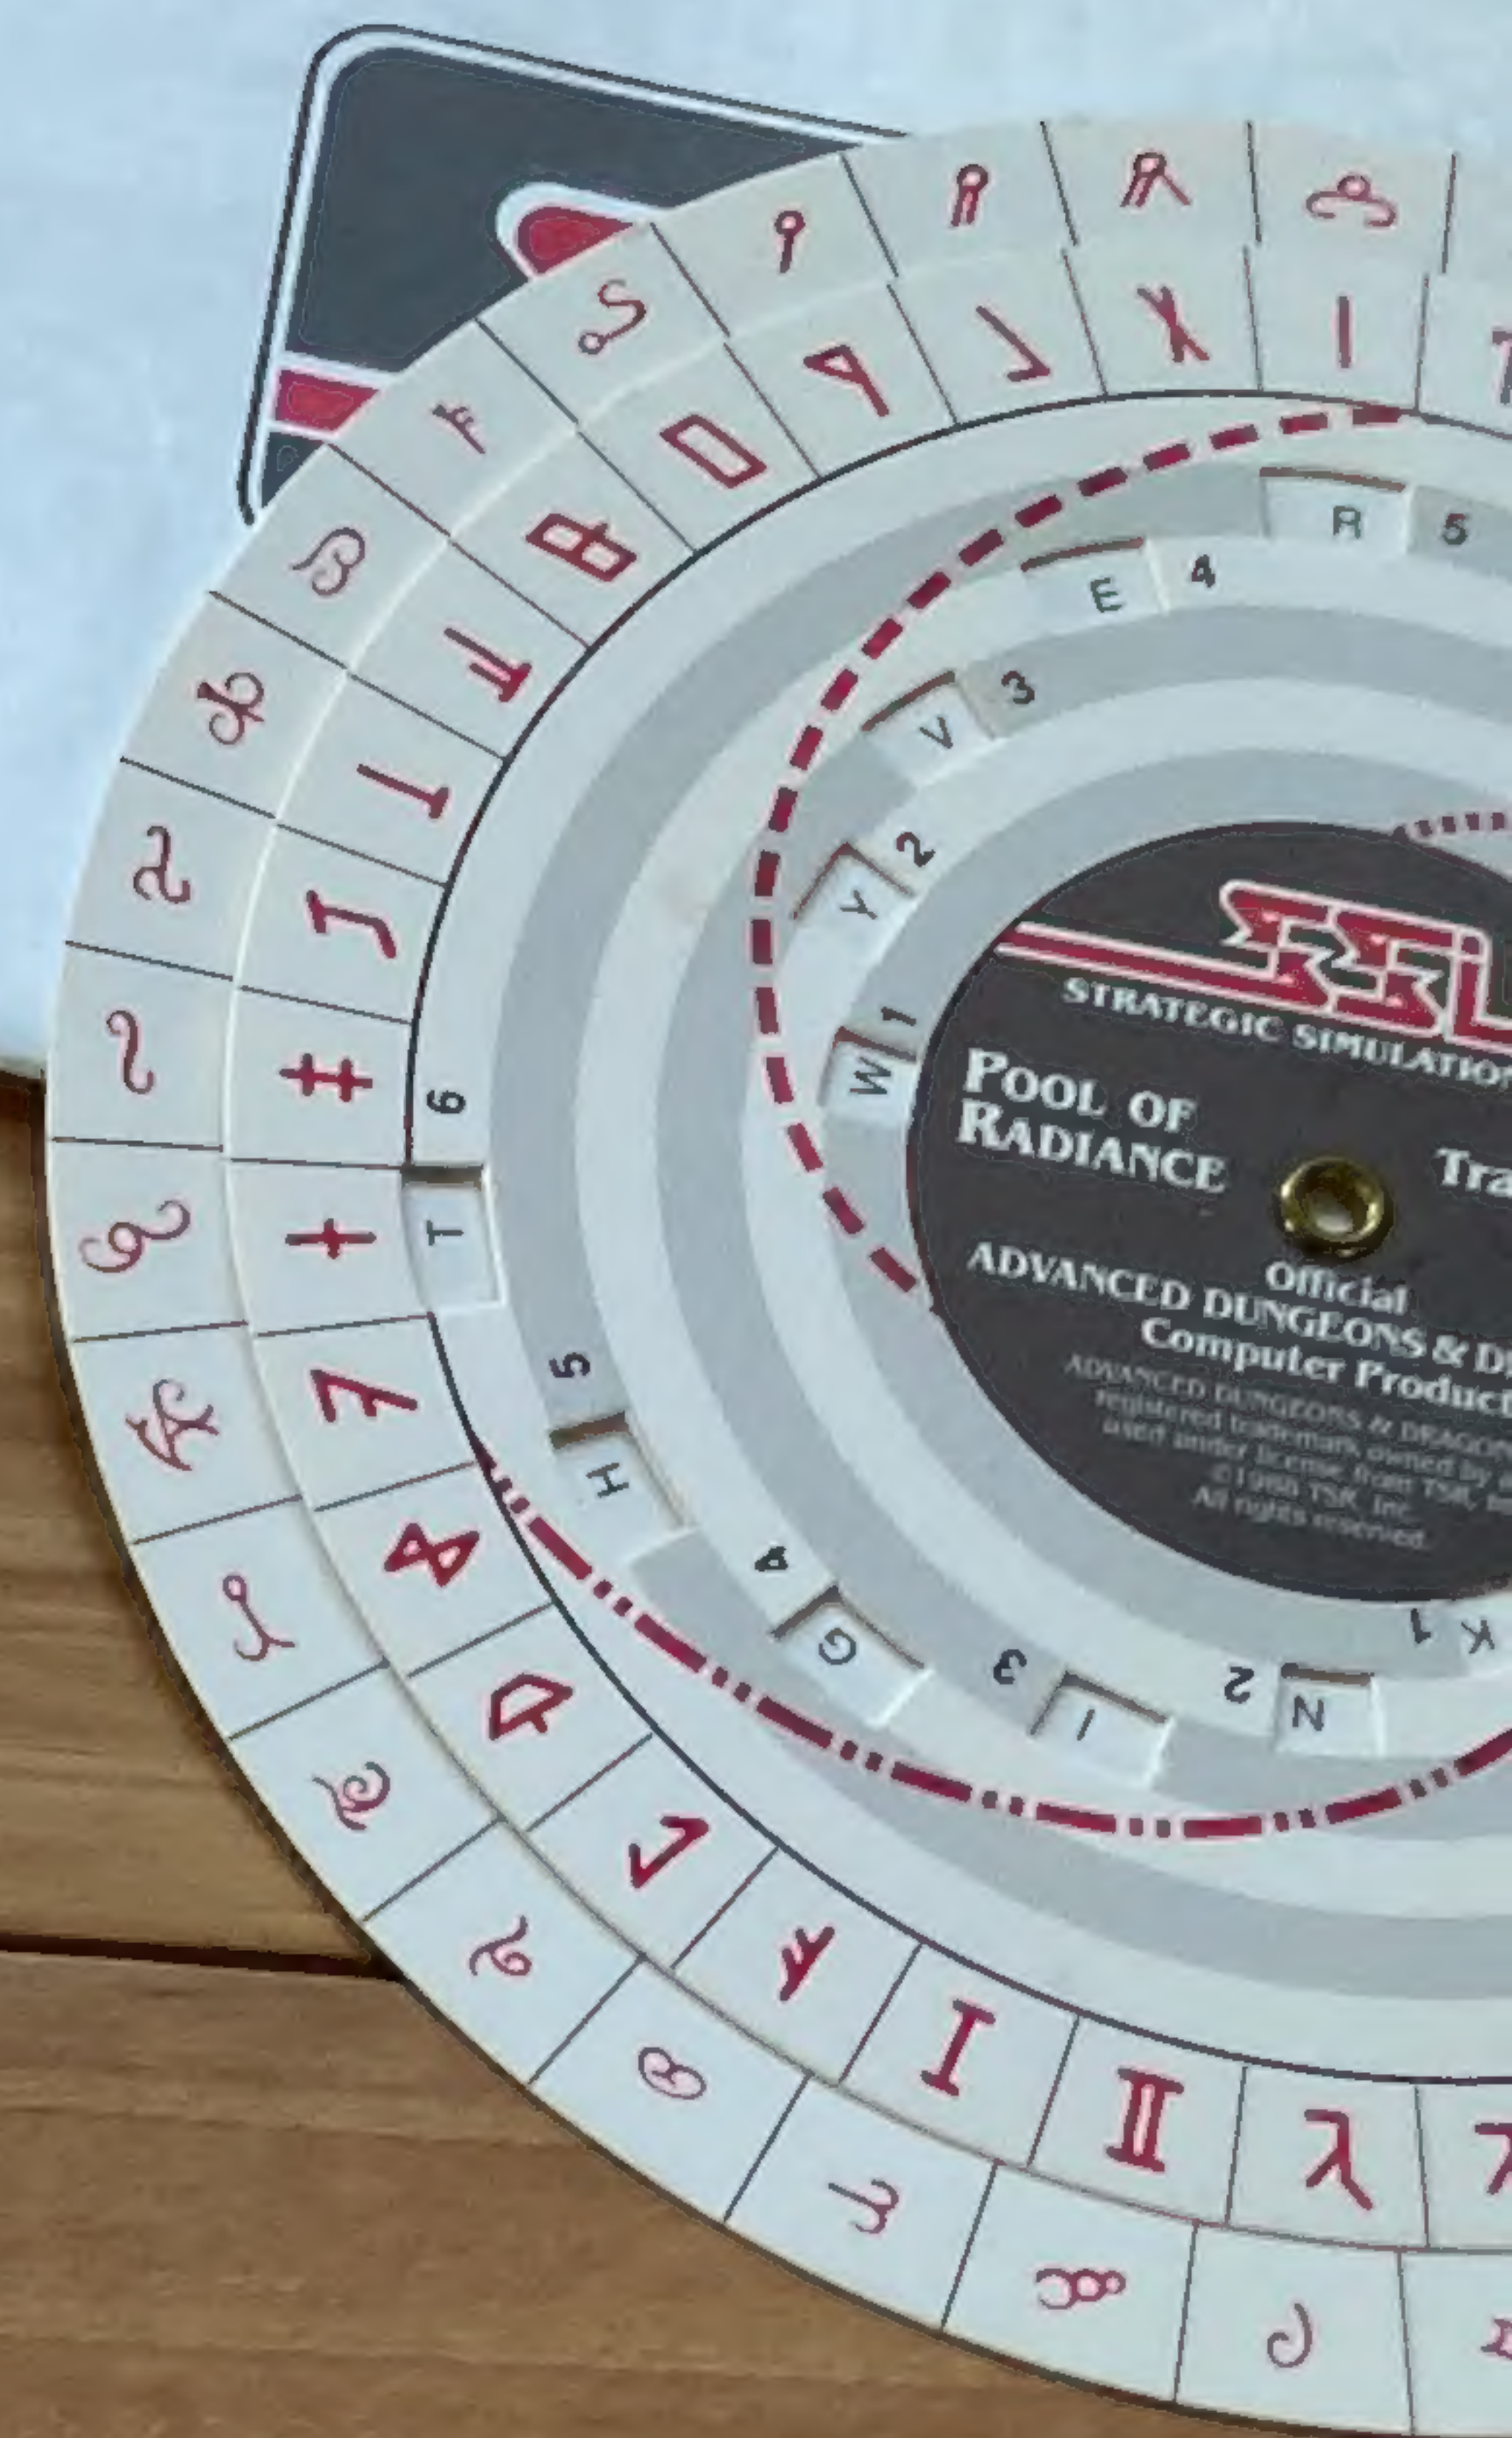

The word is ZOMBIE.

After typing the translation, the game will load and display the Party Creation Menu.

How To Make Choices: Pool of Radiance is controlled by using menus. On each menu one item is highlighted. To indicate the command you want, use the joystick or cursor keys to highlight the command. Press the joystick button or Return to select your choice. For example, to look at an overhead view of the area you are in, highlight the Area command and press the joystick button or Return key.

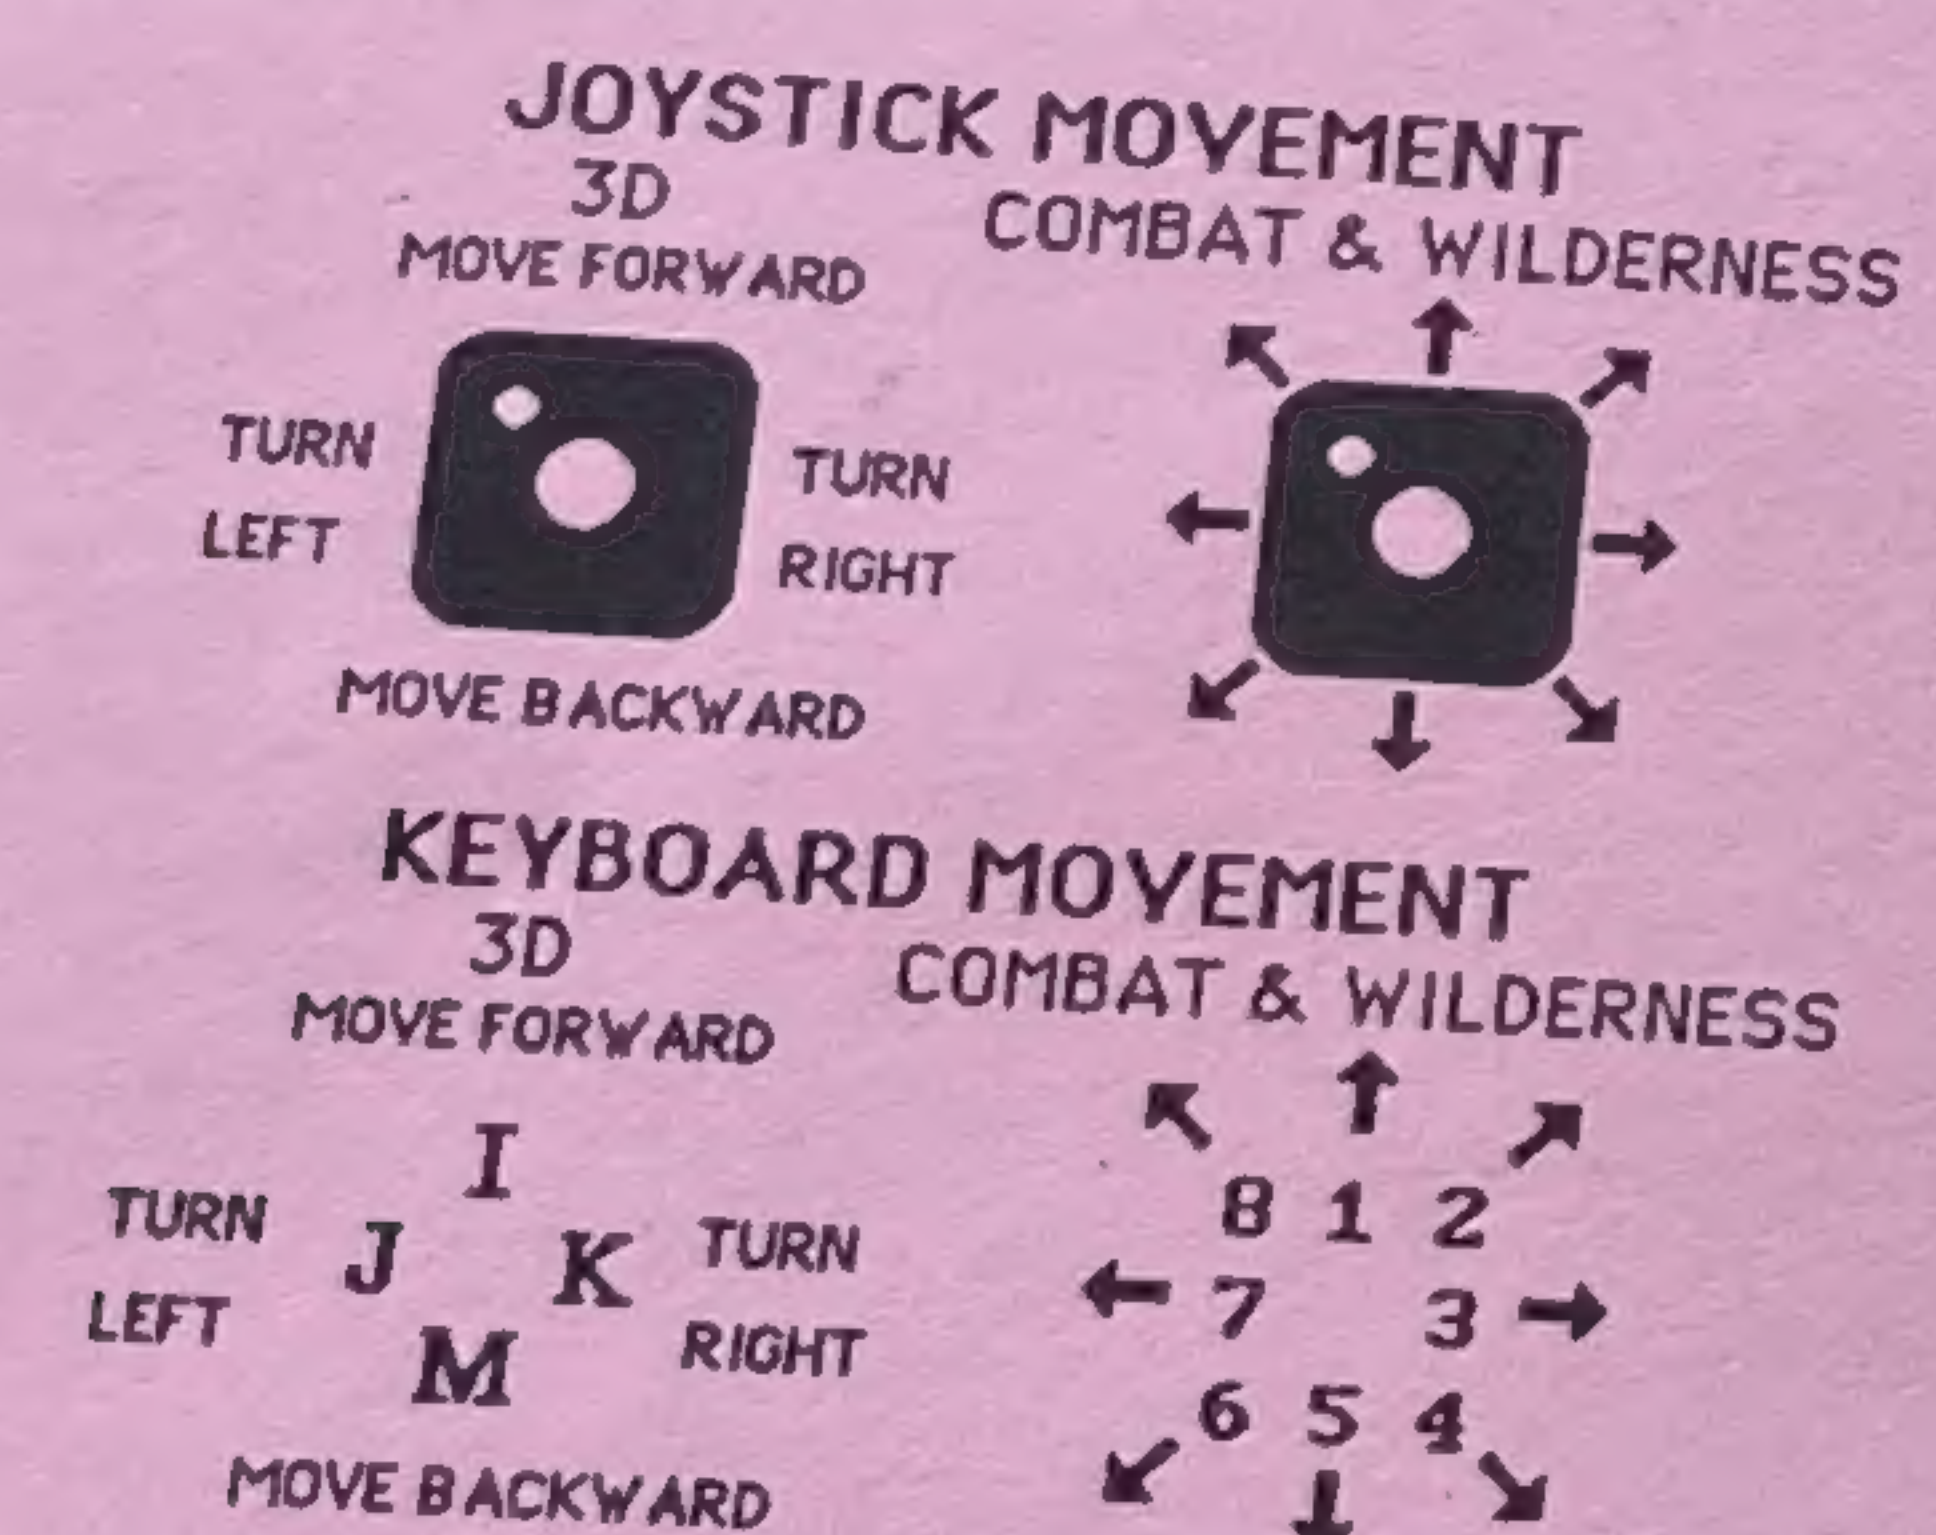

Some commands, such as View, act only on a single character. Use the joystick or cursor keys to highlight the character you want to be active for the command. Then, highlight the command and press the joystick button or Return key. For example, to view a character's ability scores, highlight the character's name in the character list, highlight the View command in the Adventure Menu, and press the joystick button or Return key.

Some commands toggle the program between two states. When you select one of these commands, the name on the screen changes to reflect the new state of the program. For example, if you select the Characters On command in the Pics menu, it will change to Characters Off. From then on the character's portrait picture is not displayed when you view the character.

How to Move Around: In 3D travel the party can move forward, turn right or left, or move backwards. In the wilderness or in combat you can move in any of eight directions. You may use the joystick or keyboard interchangeable to move in any mode. If you have a problem making a diagonal move with a joystick in combat or the wilderness, use the 2, 4, 6, or 8 keys instead.

To Begin Playing Quickly: A pre-rolled and pre-equipped party of adventurers are stored as a saved game on disk side 4. Choose Load Save Game from the Party Creation Menu. Insert disk side 4 in the drive when the save game disk is requested. After the saved game is loaded choose Begin Adventuring. You will get a tour of the main street of the civilized section of New Phlan. When the tour is over choose the Move command from the Adventure menu.

If you want to start the overall quest, turn around, go back to the city council building, and obtain a commission. If you want to try out the game, walk forward into the slums. Once in the slums you won't have to go looking for danger, danger will look for you!

Tips On Successful Early Adventuring: If you build your own party you will need equipment before your adventure into the slums. A shop selling arms and armor is located at 8,11. Pool your money. Buy fighters banded mail, a shield, and a broad sword. Buy clerics banded mail, a shield, and a flail. Buy thieves leather armor, a broad sword, and a sling. Buy your magic users a staff and a couple of darts. You may want to buy your fighters short bows and some arrows or a two handed sword instead of a shield.

Make sure you have at least 10 gold left over to pay for your lodging. Use the View, Items, and Ready commands to prepare all your characters' equipment for battle. Once you have bought everything you need, use the Take command and have one character pick up all the money.

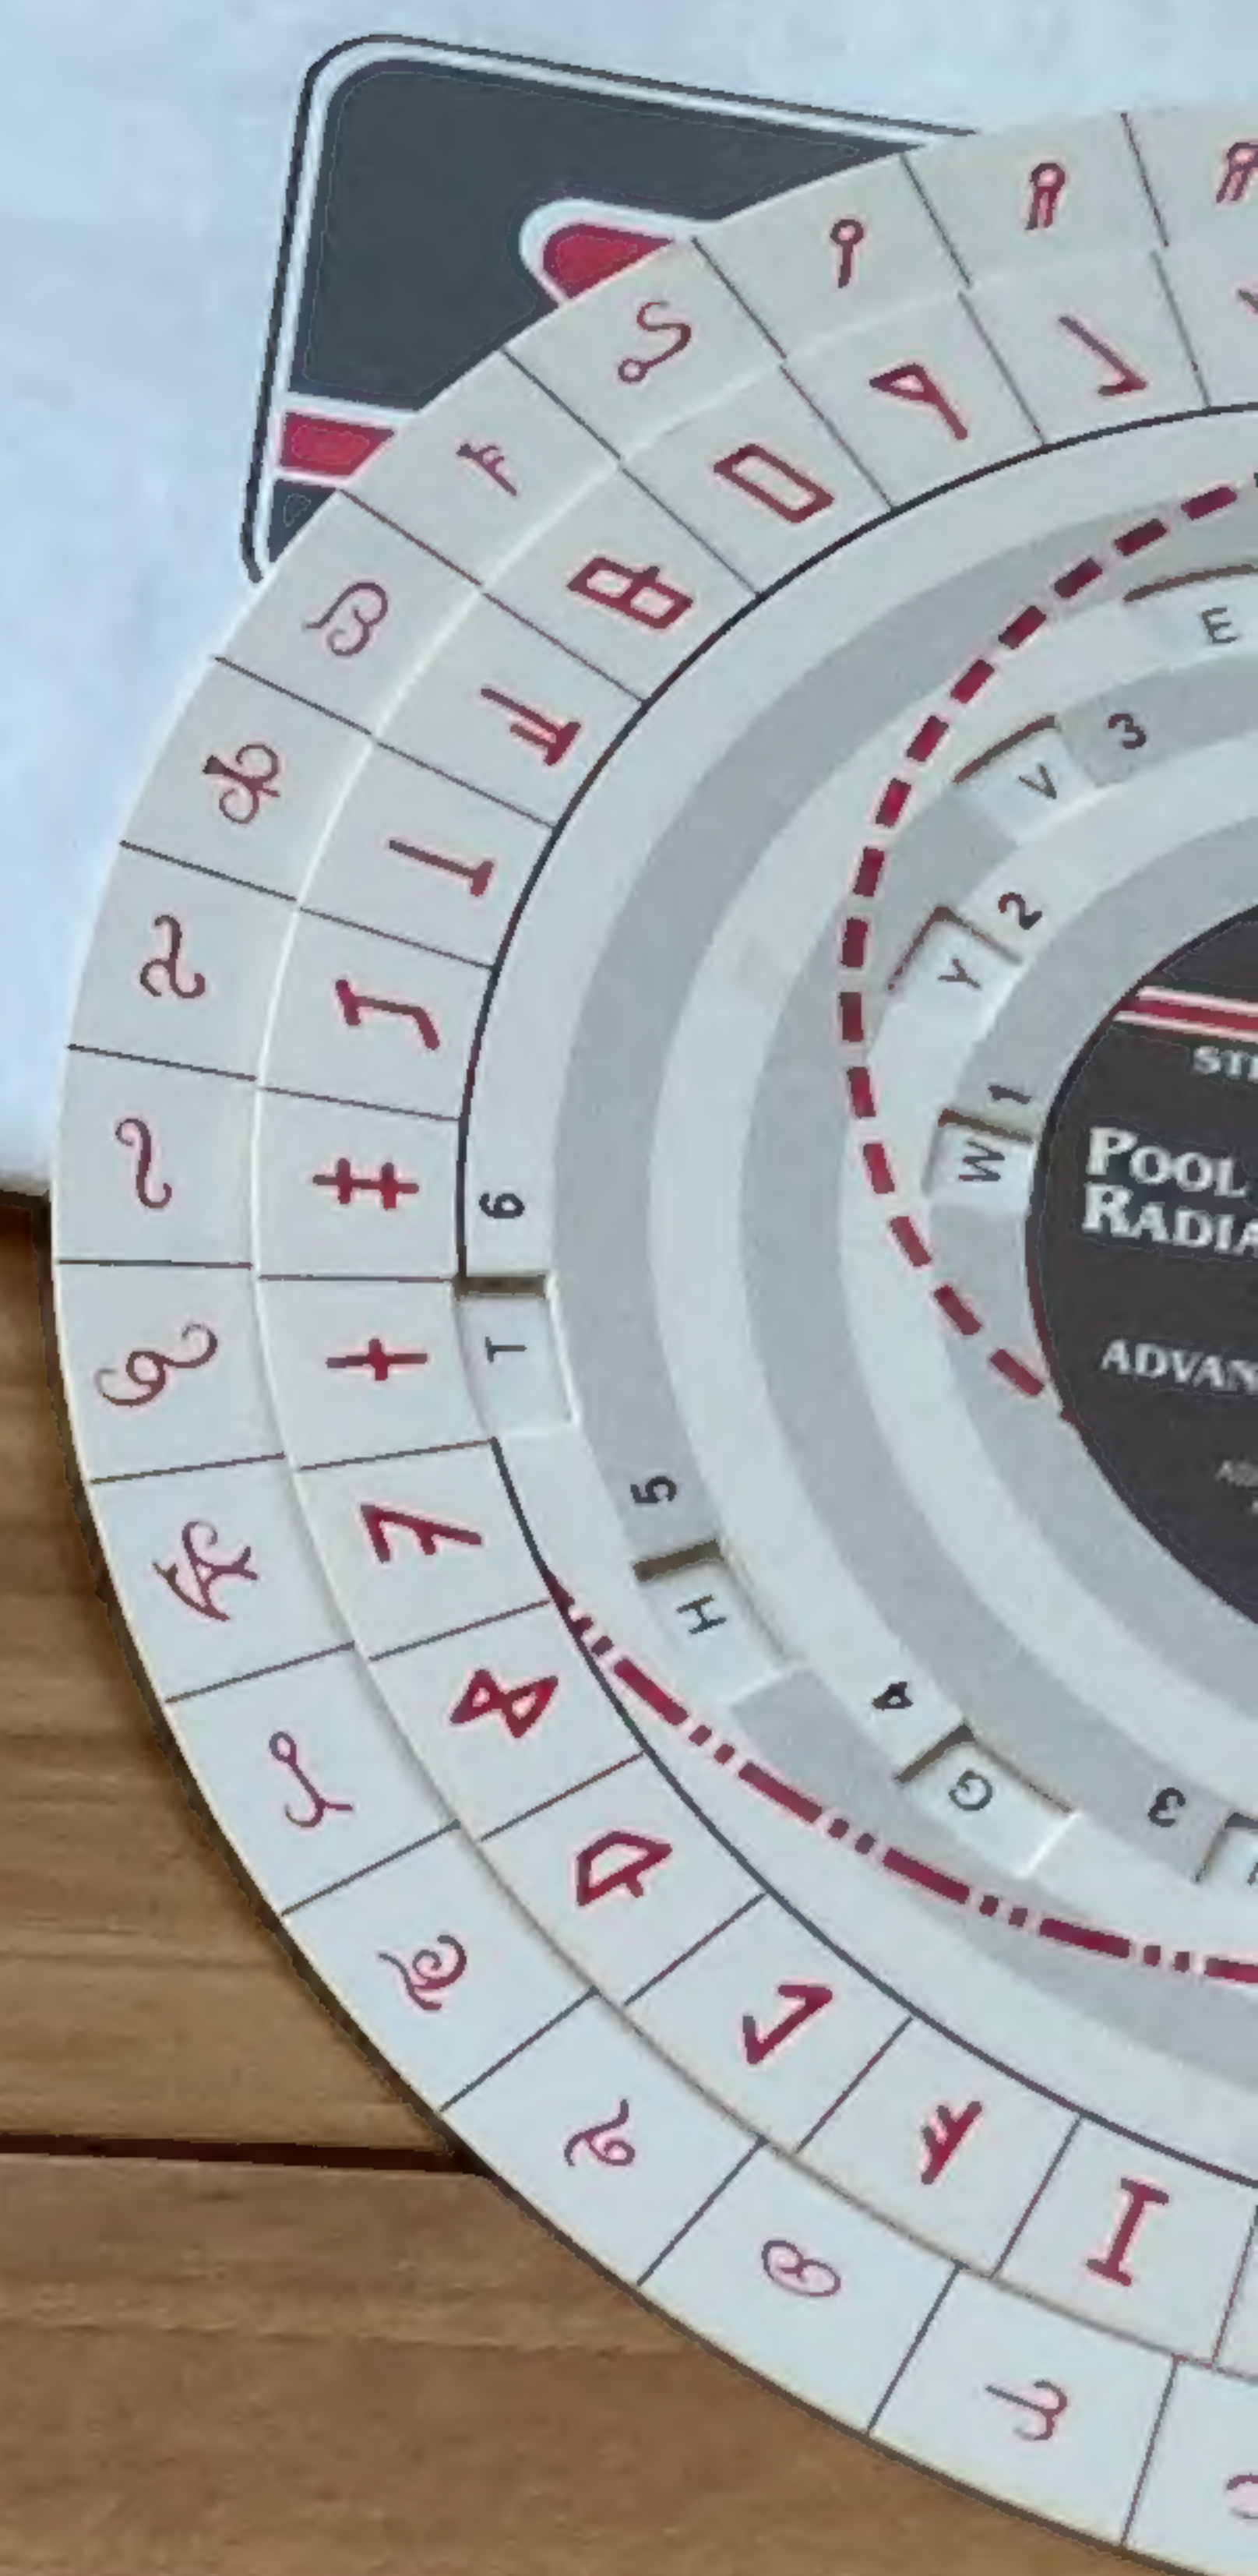

Go to the inn at 4,12, pay the money, and memorize spells. Clerics should memorize cure light wounds spells. Magic users should memorize sleep spells. Rest to memorize the spells.

Keep Search "off" while you move through the slums, you don't want to attract monster encounters. After you clear the monsters from a room you can put Search "on" and check for treasure. Try the Area command to get a birds-eye view of the slums. The slums are 16 squares by 16 squares.

In many parts of the slums it is unsafe to rest. But, after you clear the monsters from some rooms, the rooms become safe to rest in. Clear out your first safe room in the building at 13,1. Here your party can rest to regain hit points and memorize spells. Adventure deeper into the slums, clearing other safe rooms where your party can rest. Whenever your party is low on sleep and cure spells or hit points, return to your nearest safe room to rest up.

Once your characters have enough experience points and money, they should return to the civilized area and train in the training grounds. Before you train, go into a shop and make sure each character who will train is carrying at least 1000 gp. Remember to Share your money after you Pool it to buy items. If you find a particularly difficult location to clear, go the training hall in the civilized area and hire a NPC to help. Once your party clears the slums they should go to the city council and get their reward. Then take the boat to Sokal Keep and clear it.

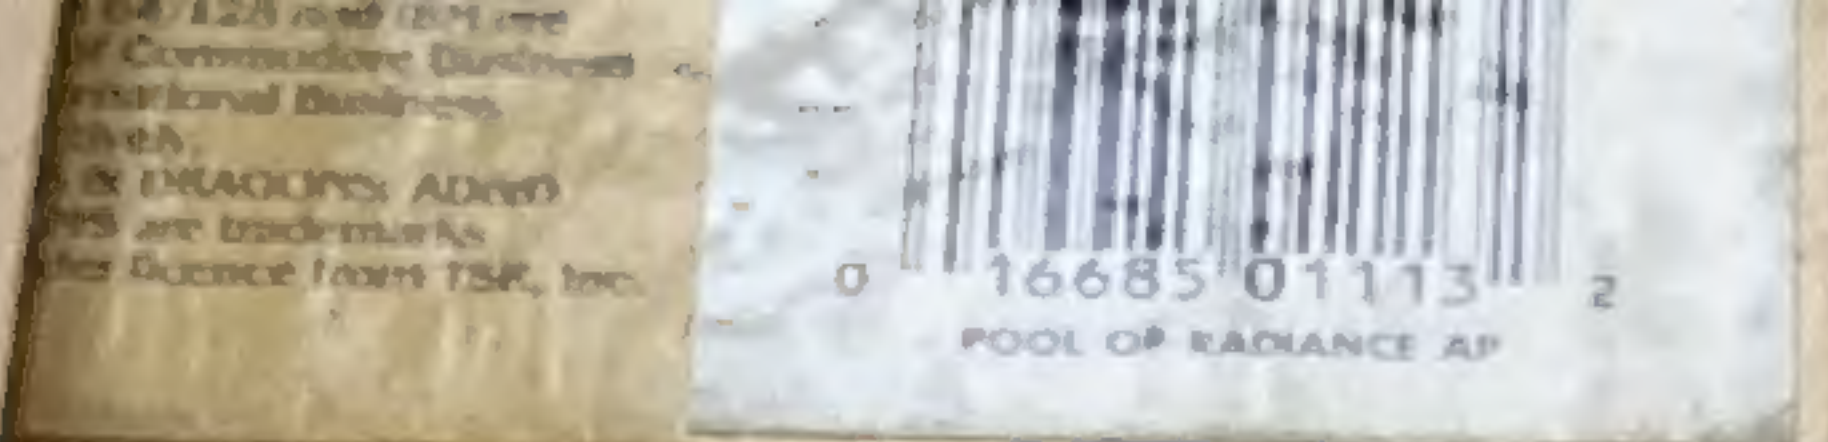

After you successfully complete each mission, return to the city council for your reward and news of any other commissions available. Once the council clerk has read you a commission, it's yours! Carefully note the messages, proclamations, journal entries, and other clues you get for the best chance to solve the mysteries of Phlan. Good luck!
